

Our Accomplishments for the 2014-2015 Year!

The Association for the Advancement
of Sustainability in Higher Education

Conference & Expo

First time BSU student participation in the annual AASHE Conference & Expo.

9/24/2015

The Association for the Advancement
of Sustainability in Higher Education

Dr. Jacqueline Jackson-Palmer, Deputy Director of Facilities Management, elected to AASHE Advisory Council.

9/24/2015

Environmental Justice Panel

Successful open panel discussion on 'Environmental Justice' featuring speakers w/ sustainability and social justice backgrounds. IPAD giveaways.

9/24/2015

Successful Continuation of Annual Recycling Events

❖ Fall 2014 Shred Day

❖ 2015 RecycleMania Tournament

Student Green Ambassadors

Establishment of an official Student Green Ambassador Program as part of C4.

Earth Days 2015

C4 established various green & sustainable events centered around Earth Day.

❖ *Gaia Poetry Slam/
"Let's Make a Deal" -
Sustainability Edition*

❖ *Gaia Poetry Slam/
"Let's Make a Deal" -
Sustainability Edition*

❖ Campus Clean Up

Gaia Poetry Slam

Student participants share poetry and spoken word centered around the protection of the environment.

BSU Instagram Green Video Contest

First ever BSU Instagram Green Video contest with cash prize winners.

Campus Clean Up

Student athletes, other students, and staff help pick up trash in various parts of campus.

Solar Energy

Purchase of solar powered bus shelter and new mini solar energy smart table for charging electronic devices using 100% solar energy

Our Sustainability Partners

Coca-Cola

Johnson Controls

Toyota Green Initiative

Thompson Hospitality

ABM Janitorial Services

