1) ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS TEACHER CERTIFICATION EVENT

Anne Arundel County Public Schools (AACPS) is hosting an information session for candidates who might be interested in pursuing a career in teaching. This session is for career changers and for those who have not gone through a traditional teacher education program. Attendees will receive information on our school districts Alternative Teacher Certification programs and hear from current teachers in the program.

Please share this information with those in your network (recent college grads, upcoming December grades, friends and colleagues) who might wish to consider teaching opportunities. The event will be held on November 29th from 5:30pm-8:30pm at the Board of Education in Annapolis and registration is still open! A link to the registration page for this event can be found on our website home page at www.aacps.org.

2) NEW INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY: DC CENTER

The DC Center for the LGBT Community seeks interns year-round. Interns provide support for different programs and areas of interest at The DC Center, like Health and Wellness, Advocacy, Center Arts and Development. Interns also gain valuable office experience providing administrative support in the day-to-day tasks at our organization.

Internships are currently unpaid and require a minimum commitment of 20 hours per week, but students can earn academic credit through ENGL 383.

Go here for more information: <http://thedccenter.org/internships/>

3) LLCS PROFESSOR ATTENDS SAMLA CONFERENCE

Dr. Horacio Sierra presented the 90th Annual South Atlantic Modern Language Association (SAMLA) Conference in Birmingham, Alabama this past weekend. He present his research, “The Most Cruel Enemies of the English”: Spanish Florida and the Original Underground Railroad,” chaired a panel, “Alien to Our Culture: Queer Activism in Art and Protest,” and led a CV workshop for graduate students.

4) WRITING CENTER WORKSHOPS

The Writing Center’s hours are: Monday-Thursday 8:00 am – 6:00 pm and Friday 8:00 am – 3:30 pm

5) NaNoWriMo (NATIONAL NOVEL WRITING MONTH) – FRIDAYS 3:00-5:00

If you are a creative writer, or would like to be one, please join us for National Novel Writing Month. We will hold weekly write-ins each Friday this month from 3:00-5:00 pm in the Library Conference Room.

Check in at the Writing Center to report on your progress, and we’ll cheer you on! Both faculty and students are welcome to participate. Please spread the word. If you have any questions, please see Monica Boothe or Shelagh Johnson.

6) INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY: SUMMER MAGAZINES – DECEMBER 1 DEADLINE

Students can earn credit through ENGL 383 for an internship.

Go here for more information and to apply: <https://asmeinternship.secure-platform.com/a>

7) PAID INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY: RISE

Bowie State University and the University of Maryland, College Park’s Research Institute for Scholars in Education (RISE) program provides under represented or disadvantaged undergraduates with one year of paid research and career development training in language or literacy.

To be eligible for this program, you must be an undergraduate at the University of Maryland College Park, or Bowie State University. The overall aim is to increase diversity in the pool of individuals who pursue doctoral studies in fields such as Education, Cognitive Psychology, Educational Psychology, Human Development, Speech Language Pathology, Special Education, Linguistics, or Audiology to broaden the focus of existing research related to language and literacy.

The elements of the yearlong fellowship experience include: (1) paid full-time, 8-week summer research seminar at UMCP; (2) paid full-time, 2 week winter seminar at BSU; (3) immersion in high-quality quantitative, qualitative, and mixed methods language or literacy research conducted by Education and Hearing and Speech faculty at UMCP; (4) Sustained academic and career development support by Education and Counseling faculty at BSU (5) assistance in applying for graduate programs; and, (6) Peer mentoring from graduate students at both campuses.

9) CEAMAG CONFERENCE CFP

Bowie State University will host the 61st Annual College English Association-Middle Atlantic Group Conference on March 9, 2019.

“The Post-Disciplinary Academy” is the theme for 2019’s CEA-MAG Conference. This year’s theme is prompted by an increasingly urgent need to consider the traditional canon of disciplines in the academy in ways that question, problematize, radicalize, negotiate, or otherwise investigate the nature of disciplinarity, and post-, cross-, trans-, multi-, inter- and intradisciplinarity in English, Modern Languages, the Humanities and STEM subjects, the Social Sciences, and beyond. We therefore invite papers, panels, and one-minute “flash presentations” from academics in higher education, AP instructors, and graduate students on any topic which is likely to be of interest to this organization. Although proposals may broadly interpret the conference theme along the following subtopics indicated below, we will also, in keeping with the theme of the conference, gladly consider any proposal on any topic whatsoever related to literary and cultural studies.

Flash Presentations: We will also have for the first time a session devoted to one-minute “flash presentations” in which you may share teaching tools and experiences, pedagogies, books and materials, and other informational items of interest to conference participants. Flash presenters are welcome to use PowerPoints and a strict one-minute limit will be observed. You do not have to present a regular paper to be a flash presenter.

Students are encouraged to submit proposals for short creative works to be read or performed at a closing reception at the end of the conference.

Please email your paper abstracts (of 500 words or fewer) or panel proposals by 6 January 2019 to LaTanya Rogers, Program Committee Chair, at ceamagconference@gmail.com. One-minute flash presenters should send their proposals to Horacio Sierra at hsierra@bowiestate.edu. Please include “CEA-MAG” in the subject line of all submissions. Acceptance letters will be sent out in late January.

Paper abstracts, panel proposals, and flash presentation proposals should include the following information: Name; institutional affiliation (if applicable); mailing address (including zip code); phone number and email address; title for the proposed presentation; abstract of no more than 500 words for a regular paper or panel and 100 words for a “flash presentation” (papers at the conference will be limited to 15 minutes; flash presentations will be limited to one minute); A-V needs, if any; special needs, if any. Graduate students should identify themselves to be eligible to compete for the $100 Christopher Bell prize for best grad student paper, and should be prepared to submit a full copy of the accepted conference paper by Feb. 24. Adjunct instructors are eligible to compete for a travel grant by submitting a full copy of the accepted paper to be presented at the conference by Feb. 24 to the Program Committee Chair; two such grants in the amount of $100 each will be awarded. For both grad student and adjunct prizes, please submit only the conference-length papers.

10) SIGMA TAU DELTA
