

DAILY CRIME LOG
MONTH: JANUARY 2016

CASE #	DATE	TIME	LOCATION	INCIDENT	CLASSIFICATION	A JA	OFC. I.D.
1601-0001	1/1/16	1021	MCKELDIN	THEFT	1-Larceny – 6(g) – $615 Theft of cellphone from common area of residential room.		1132
1601-0002	1/4/16	1549	CMRC	CDS	Officer. Dispatched to CMRC for report of possible marijuana roach found & ash residue, positive for marijuana. No one present in room. Referred to JA	JA	1112
1601-0003	1/9/16	1610	CMRC	DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY	Victim left her MD Driver's License ID at front desk upon entering CMRC as required while visiting. MD. License was later found cut into pieces outside of resident's room visiting.		1136
1601-0004	1/14/16	1423	NSU	MEDICAL EMERGENCY	Officers responded to the student center for report of a sick person. Victim was experiencing shortness of breath. Fireboard was called and responded. Victim refused transport and left campus with caregiver.		1144
1601-0005	1/16/16	2204	CMRC	BURGLARY 2 ND DEGREE	5-(a) B&E (Unknown value) Resident Director called and advised items were missing from her office in CMRC. Video footage revealed positively identified person unlawfully enter the office and remove property.		1142
1601-0006	1-19-16	1458	CBGS	FIRE ALARM	Officers were dispatched to Graduate Studies Building for fire alarm. Upon arrival sprinkler on first floor appeared to be activated. Building was evacuated. Investigation revealed maintenance was working in the building and advised the sprinkler most likely activated due to extremely cold temperatures outside. Water damage was noted on ceiling near sprinkler, no other damage noted. Fire department was not notified. ABM removed all water.		1140
2016-0019	1/21/16	1000	LOT C	ACCIDENT	Vehicle Collision on parking lot C. No injuries. No major vehicle damage. Insurance information exchanged by drivers.		1132

DAILY CRIME LOG
MONTH: JANUARY 2016

1601-0007	1/24/16	1337	FACILITIES	ACCIDENT	Facilities worker struck an occupied stationary vehicle in the rear, damaging the right side tail light while plowing snow in the rear of Haley Hall. Facilities worker attempted to speak with occupant but occupant pulled off and left the area prior to communication. The struck vehicle was a navy blue Toyota Highlander. No vehicle tag information was obtained for the struck vehicle.		1140
1601-0008	1/24/16	2251	HALEY	CDS	Officers responded to Haley Hall Room 239 for a report of the smell of CDS (Marijuana). Upon arrival with Resident Director, entry was made by resident director and police as observers. The odor of CDS was emanating in the air of the residence and marijuana residue was observed by officers in plain view on a paper plate in the middle of the room. Residue was retrieved and field test was performed. Residue tested positive for CDS. Incident referred to office of student conduct.	JA	1115
1601-0009	1/28/16	1127	HALEY	CDS	Officers received a call to respond to Haley Residential Hall for a complaint of smell of CDS (Marijuana). Upon arrival they met with (RD) Resident Director and proceeded to Suite 230 Rm 233. RD knocked on the door and announced herself as entry was made by RD and police as observers to perform a health and welfare check. The room was unoccupied. An ashtray was observed in plain view with suspected CDS residue by RD. Residue was retrieved and field test was performed by officers and the residue tested positive for CDS. Incident referred to Student Conduct	JA	1132
1601-0010	1/29/16	1404	CLT	MISC. INCIDENT	Student called and spoke with professor about retaking an exam. Student was advised by professor he will not be able to have more time to take the exam. Student advised professor he would have to deal with the professor on a personal level if arrangements were not made. Professor did not like the tone of the conversation. Incident referred to Office of student conduct.	JA	1132

DAILY CRIME LOG
MONTH: JANUARY 2016

1601-0011	1/29/16	1623	CMRC	ASSAULT (Domestic Related)	1-Assault 4(e) Student reported being struck in the lower back with a closed fist by roommate while standing in the bathroom of their apartment at CMRC Residential Hall. No injuries incurred. Incident referred to Office of student conduct.	JA	1142
1601-0012	1-31-16	1650	CMRC	B&E	1-B&E- 5(b) IPAD $200. Victim advised on 1/22/16 they went to sleep in their apartment (CMRC Residential Complex). While asleep IPAD was stolen as it was being charged in the victim's room. Room door was locked when the victim went to sleep but was unlocked when the victim awakened. Victim asked roommates if they knew what happened with negative results. Further investigation pending.		1142