1) STUDENTS ATTEND RENT! PERFORMANCE

Students in Dr. Horacio Sierra's ENGL 254: Queer Cultural Studies class, including English majors Haley White, Zenobia Fenrick, and Sayeeda Jobe, attended a performance of RENT! at the National Theater in D.C. last night. The performance was part of the 20th Anniversary Tour of the groundbreaking, Tony Award-winning musical that explores the lives of a group of young friends in New York City's Lower East Side. Loosely based on Puccini's La Bohème, this operatic, rock-infused musical includes characters of different races, ethnicities, sexual orientations, gender identities, and HIV statuses.

2) UTOPIA FILM FESTIVAL: NOVEMBER 16-18

Washington, D.C. • Greenbelt, MD • November 16-18, 2019

Professor Jenise Williamson is an Executive Committee Member of the Utopia Film Festival. Now in its 15th year, the festival showcases international documentaries, feature films, shorts, and animation which creatively explore the personal, social, political, cultural, and environmental issues that challenge humanity's never-ending quest for a better world.

LIBRARY

OF CONGRESS

The Library of Congress Junior Fellows Summer Intern Program enables undergraduate and graduate students to experience the integrated analog and digital collections and services of the world's largest, all-inclusive library. Working under the direction of library curators and specialists in various divisions, Junior Fellows explore digital initiatives and increase access to the institution's unparalleled collections and resources.

This summer internship runs from May 26, 2020 to July 31, 2020 and pays up to $4,500. Applications are due December 20, 2019

Visit the following website for more information: <https://www.loc.gov/item/internships/junior-fellows-program/>

7) CEAMAG CONFERENCE CFP

The 62nd Annual College English Association-Middle Atlantic Group (CEAMAG) Conference will be held March 7, 2020, at Prince George's Community College. "Tides and Surges" is the theme for 2020's CEA-MAG Conference. This year's theme is a prompt for papers and panels investigating the scholarly and pedagogical ebb and flow in English, Modern Languages, Cultural Studies, the Humanities and STEM subjects, the Social Sciences, and interdisciplinary subjects. We therefore invite papers and panels from academics in higher education, AP instructors, and graduate students on any topic which is likely to be of interest to this organization. Although proposals may broadly interpret the conference theme along the following subtopics indicated below, we will also gladly review for possible inclusion thematically divergent proposals.

Students: Students are encouraged to submit proposals for short creative works to be read or performed at a closing reception at the end of the conference. Graduate students should identify themselves to be eligible to compete for the $100 Christopher Bell prize for best grad student paper and should be prepared to submit a full copy of the accepted conference paper by Feb. 24 to the Program Committee Chair.

Submissions: Please email your paper abstracts (of 500 words or fewer) or panel proposals by 6 January 2020 to La Tanya Rogers, Program Committee Chair, at ceamagconference@gmail.com or Lrogers@fisk.edu. Please include "CEA-MAG" in the subject line of all submissions. Acceptance letters will be sent out in late January.

Paper abstracts and panel proposals should include the following information: Name; institutional affiliation (if applicable); mailing address (including zip code); phone number and email address; title for the proposed presentation; abstract of no more than 500 words (papers at the conference will be limited to 15 minutes); A-V needs, if any; special needs, if any.

Registration: A conference registration/CEA-MAG membership fee of $50 ($35 for adjunct instructors and $25 for graduate students) will be required when you submit your online registration for the conference (includes lunch and subscription to the CEAMAG Journal). Registration fees after the deadline will be adjusted to $55/$40/$25 and onsite day-of registration will be available. The link to the online registration page is on the webpage for the CEA-MAG: <https://www.umes.edu/ceamag/>.

Travel Grants: Adjunct instructors are eligible to compete for a travel grant by submitting a full copy of the accepted paper to be presented at the conference by Feb. 24 to the Program Committee Chair; two such grants in the amount of $100 each will be awarded. For both grad student and adjunct prizes, please submit only the conference-length papers.

8) SIGMA TAU DELTA

Sigma Tau Delta is always looking to welcome new members. This year's Induction Ceremony will be held December 10.

Membership Requirements:

- Candidates for undergraduate membership must have completed a minimum of two college courses in English language or literature beyond the usual requirements in freshman English. The candidate must have a minimum of a B or equivalent average in English and in general scholarship and must have completed at least three semesters or five quarters of college course work. Candidates for undergraduate membership need not be majoring or minoring in the discipline of English.
- Candidates for graduate membership who did not hold undergraduate membership must be enrolled in a graduate program in English or one of its specializations, have completed six semester hours of graduate work or the equivalent, and have a minimum grade point average of 3.3 on a 4.0 scale.
- Lifetime Membership Fee: $80. $40 goes to the Nu Nu chapter, which will bestow you with Honor Cords and a Medallion at your Induction Ceremony that you can wear during graduation.
