1) SPECIAL LECTURE: RUTH CARTER, COSTUME DESIGNER – SEPTEMBER 27

2) GUEST LECTURE: MARY WASHINGTON, MARYLAND DELEGATE – OCTOBER 18

Mary Washington, a member of the Maryland House of Delegates, who has represented District 43 (Baltimore) since 2011, will guest lecture in Dr. Horacio Sierra's ENGL 254: Queer Cultural Studies class. Washington is one of only two openly gay black women in the country to have been elected to serve in a state legislature. Seeing herself as a politician that focuses on intersectional identities, she will discuss how LGBT issues play a role in her work as a legislator and in her recent primary win to represent her district in the Maryland State Senate next year.

3) NEW INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY: MARYLAND DEMOCRATIC PARTY

The Maryland Democratic Party Internship Program provides undergraduate and graduate students, as well as recent graduates, a unique opportunity to gain hands on experience in Maryland's political process. The internship will begin on a rolling basis and conclude after the November 6th General Election.

General intern duties and responsibilities include:

- Assist in drafting Party communications
- Assist in the management and growth of Party data lists
- Gain experience utilizing campaign and voter databases
- Assist in Party event planning
- Communicate with Democratic Party officials, offices and staff
- Build relationships with Democratic affiliated organizations
- Conduct issue, candidate, and event research
- General office support and organization

Requirements:

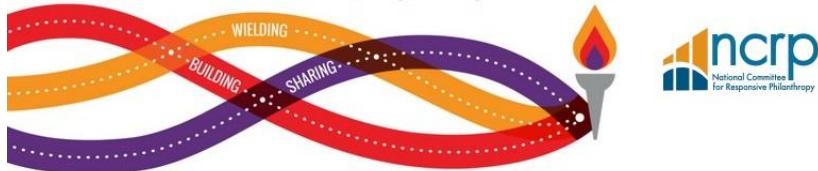

- A passion for politics, especially Maryland politics
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- Strong attention to detail and accuracy
- Demonstrated ability to work independently and in a team environment
- A good sense of humor and a commitment to democratic values
- Ability to commute to our office in Annapolis
- Interns should be prepared to use their own laptop computers
- Interns may be asked to attend events in Annapolis and around the state of Maryland

Schedule: 12 hours per week during normal business hours. Schedules will be set with your direct MDP supervisor

This is an unpaid, volunteer internship position. You can earn credit for your internship through our ENGL 383 class.

Apply: Interested candidates are encouraged to submit their application via this form. Candidates who do not have a Google account should submit their resume and cover letter to info@mddem.org with the subject line "Fall 2018 Internship."

4) NEW PAID INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY: NCRP

The National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy (NCRP) in Washington, D.C., is looking for an events intern who can help the organization's small but high-performing team. This internship is a wonderful opportunity for hands-on experience in event planning for a national nonprofit. You'll practice building targeted outreach and recruiting strategies for important events, creating high-quality materials, and managing short-term projects. You'll be able to participate on multiple project teams and learn how to navigate. You'll also get a chance to learn more about and interact with progressive nonprofits and foundations across the country that are engaged in the daily fight for a more equitable society. If you're interested in learning more about this sector and building transferable skills for future work at a nonprofit or philanthropic institution, please read more below.

Length of internship: Fall 2018 to September 30, 2019

Hours: 25 hours a week

Pay: $15 an hour

Requirements: Recent college graduate or graduate student

9) CEAMAG CONFERENCE CFP

Bowie State University will host the 61st Annual College English Association-Middle Atlantic Group Conference on March 9, 2019.

"The Post-Disciplinary Academy" is the theme for 2019's CEA-MAG Conference. This year's theme is prompted by an increasingly urgent need to consider the traditional canon of disciplines in the academy in ways that question, problematize, radicalize, negotiate, or otherwise investigate the nature of disciplinarity, and post-, cross-, trans-, multi-, inter- and intradisciplinarity in English, Modern Languages, the Humanities and STEM subjects, the Social Sciences, and beyond. We therefore invite papers, panels, and one-minute "flash presentations” from academics in higher education, AP instructors, and graduate students on any topic which is likely to be of interest to this organization. Although proposals may broadly interpret the conference theme along the following subtopics indicated below, we will also, in keeping with the theme of the conference, gladly consider any proposal on any topic whatsoever related to literary and cultural studies.

Flash Presentations: We will also have for the first time a session devoted to one-minute “flash presentations” in which you may share teaching tools and experiences, pedagogies, books and materials, and other informational items of interest to conference participants. Flash presenters are welcome to use PowerPoints and a strict one-minute limit will be observed. You do not have to present a regular paper to be a flash presenter.

Students are encouraged to submit proposals for short creative works to be read or performed at a closing reception at the end of the conference.

Please email your paper abstracts (of 500 words or fewer) or panel proposals by 6 January 2019 to LaTanya Rogers, Program Committee Chair, at ceamagconference@gmail.com. One-minute flash presenters should send their proposals to Horacio Sierra at hsierra@bowiestate.edu. Please include “CEA-MAG” in the subject line of all submissions. Acceptance letters will be sent out in late January.

Paper abstracts, panel proposals, and flash presentation proposals should include the following information: Name; institutional affiliation (if applicable); mailing address (including zip code); phone number and email address; title for the proposed presentation; abstract of no more than 500 words for a regular paper or panel and 100 words for a “flash presentation” (papers at the conference will be limited to 15 minutes; flash presentations will be limited to one minute); A-V needs, if any; special needs, if any. Graduate students should identify themselves to be eligible to compete for the $100 Christopher Bell prize for best grad student paper, and should be prepared to submit a full copy of the accepted conference paper by Feb. 24. Adjunct instructors are eligible to compete for a travel grant by submitting a full copy of the accepted paper to be presented at the conference by Feb. 24 to the Program Committee Chair; two such grants in the amount of $100 each will be awarded. For both grad student and adjunct prizes, please submit only the conference-length papers.
