COLLEGE OF EDUCATION MISSION
See https://bowiestate.edu/academics/colleges/college-of-education/mission-vision-and-goals.php

The mission of the College of Education at Bowie State University is to prepare academic and professional leaders who are globally competitive in their content specialty, grounded in the knowledge bases of their discipline, and sensitive to the ethnicity of the students they serve for positions in public and private schools in Maryland, and school systems in other states and community establishments. The College’s teacher education program model rests upon a legacy of the best practices in the field of education and upon what research tells us about teaching and learning. Revised in September of 2011, the College of Education has adopted the following theme for its academic programs: "Preparing Effective and Caring Educators for a Global Society." The College strives through its programs to develop candidates who become academic scholars, skillful instructional leaders, reflective practitioners, and collaborative educator in the schools and communities in which they work. It focuses on productivity and accountability of faculty, professional development, and specific development within its three academic departments: the Department of Counseling; the Department of Educational Studies and Leadership; and the Department of Teaching, Learning, and Professional Development.

PROGRAM PHILOSOPHY
The Bowie State University school psychology program embraces social interconnectedness as a guiding framework to enhance culturally responsible training. The program is committed to educating and training candidates to function as specialist level practitioners who will provide a broad range of school psychological services. In keeping with Bowie State University’s mission “to empower a diverse population of students to reach their potential” this program trains candidates to become caring practitioners in the field of school psychology. Consequently, candidates develop competencies and a sensitivity towards serving children and families of diverse backgrounds. The program is built on a practitioner-scientific model in psychology where candidates are expected to perfect their skills as practitioners, while being consumers and producers of research.

All eligible applicants are interviewed by program faculty. Applicants are rated by all interviewers. Successful applicants are admitted into the master’s program.

Admission to the Certificate Program (Only open to BSU Master of Arts degreeed candidates)
In accordance with university procedures, all mastered degree candidates who wish to obtain their Certificate of Advanced Study (CAS) must reapply for admissions. Most candidates are admitted to the CAS program, unless there is evidence that candidates lack sufficient ability and/or dispositions to move forward in the program.

RETENTION CRITERIA*
All candidates must advance to candidacy to move on in the program. According to university policy, candidates must secure a grade point average (GPA) of 3.25 within the first 12-18 semester hours of coursework to advance. In addition, school psychology applicants must pass faculty review which includes a review of the portfolio and candidate dispositions. If candidates do not advance, the candidate will meet with their advisor to develop a plan of action (via Academic Progress Form per Graduate School policy). Candidates can take up to 9 additional semester hours of coursework to re-apply and advance to candidacy. After that time, candidates who lack sufficient aptitude or who fail to show evidence of serious purpose may be requested to withdraw from the program.

Per policy of the graduate school, candidates must maintain a 3.00 grade point average each semester prior to and after advancement to candidacy. If they fall below, the candidate will be placed on academic probation. The candidate will meet with their advisor to develop a plan of action which is documented on the Graduate School’s Academic Progressive Plan Form. After completing 9 additional credits, the candidate will be re-evaluated to determine if they have regained a cumulative GPA of 3.00. If so, the candidate will be restored to good standing. If not, per graduate policy, the candidate will be dismissed from the program. Dismissed candidates may re-apply to the school psychology program after sitting out at least one semester (i.e., fall or spring). For reinstatement, candidates must make a formal request to the Graduate School and the school psychology program to be reinstated. These individuals will also be asked to re-interview with the School Psychology Admission’s committee. The committee will make a final determination regarding re-admittance into the program.

Please see the graduate catalog for policy regarding retention and dismissal.

Student Code of Conduct

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner which is consistent with the Core Values (Excellence, Civility, Integrity, Diversity, and Accountability), purpose, goals, and objectives of Bowie State University. In particular, all students have the privilege to learn, subject only to their own initiative and ability, uninhibited by the behavior of others. The University reserves the right to deny admission to any applicant, to discontinue the enrollment of any student, or to withhold the degree of any student if, in the opinion of University authorities, a student’s behavior is in continuous or serious violation of the Student Code of Conduct established by the faculty, students, and administration and published in the Student Handbook. Academic honesty, as defined in the Student Handbook, is required of all students.

Academic Integrity

University Policy Regarding Academic Honesty
Students are expected to conform to a strict standard of academic honesty. Cheating on examinations, plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration with others on assignments, submitting without authorization duplicate assignments for credit in more than one course, and improper acknowledgment of sources of material are intolerable offenses that carry serious penalties.

Policy on Plagiarism

1. Plagiarism is the act of representing another’s ideas, words, or information as one’s own. Every student writing a paper should be aware of the following principles.
   a. All directly quoted materials must be identified as such by quotation marks. The source(s) of this material must be acknowledged.
   b. When borrowed ideas or information is not directly quoted by a student, the student should have so assimilated this material that it is indeed being expressed in his/her own words. However, just as in the case of direct quotations, the sources of such borrowed ideas or information must be acknowledged.
   c. The sources of ideas or information lying well within the realm of common knowledge (i.e., material that would be known by anyone familiar with the subject under discussion) need not be acknowledged.
2. Students guilty of plagiarism are subject to severe penalties, ranging from failure for the assignment to failure in the course or, in extreme cases, dismissal from the University. The instructor, in consultation with the Departmental Chair and the College Dean, shall determine the appropriate sanction to be imposed. Students appealing the imposed sanction must present their appeal in writing to the Provost for a final resolution.
Academic Dishonesty/Plagiarism

- Academic dishonesty is defined to include any form of cheating and/or plagiarism. Cheating includes, but is not limited to, such acts as stealing or altering testing instruments; falsifying the identity of persons for any academic purpose; offering, giving or receiving unauthorized assistance on an examination, quiz or other written or oral material in a course; or falsifying information on any type of academic record.

- Plagiarism is the presentation of written or oral material in a manner which conceals the true source of documentary material; or the presentation of materials which uses hypotheses, conclusions, evidence, data, or the like, in a way that the student appears to have done work which he/she did not, in fact, do. This course will use the resources of safe assign, which searches the web for possible plagiarism and is over 90% effective. In cases involving academic dishonesty, a failing grade or a grade of zero (0) for either an assignment and/or a course may be administered. Students who are expelled or suspended for reasons of academic dishonesty are not admissible to other institutions within the University System of Maryland.

- Falsification of Information - Falsification of information includes any form of providing false or misleading information, written or oral, in a manner which has the intent or effect of deceiving authorized University personnel, including members of judicial hearing panels, or of altering or falsifying official institutional records. Misrepresentation of oneself or of an organization as an agent of the University will also be considered a violation of this section. Any student who commits any of the above is subject to discipline as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct and by Bowie State University.

- Network System Misuse and Dishonesty
  The University considers any misuse of its software programs to be a serious offense. A student may not attempt to degrade the performance of the software programs, to seek to penetrate its security, or in any way deprive other users of resources or access to the computer. Further violations include, but are not limited to, (a) using a computer account belonging to another individual without the explicit permission of that individual; (b) tampering with the operation of the University’s software programs including both its equipment and its software; (c) using the system for commercial purposes; (d) using the network system to send abusive, obscene, or otherwise harassing communications.

- Copyright Notice
  The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials, including music and software. Copying, displaying, reproducing, or distributing copyrighted works may infringe the copyright owner's rights and such infringement is subject to appropriate disciplinary action as well as criminal penalties provided by federal law. Usage of such materials is only appropriate when that usage constitutes “fair use” under the Copyright Act. As a BSU student, you are required to follow the institution’s copyright policy.

- Email Use
  The University has adopted email as the primary means for sending official communications to students. Academic advisors, faculty, and campus administrative offices use email to convey important information and time-sensitive notices. All enrolled students are provided a University email address. Students are responsible for keeping their email address up to date or for forwarding email to another address. Failure to check email, errors in forwarding email, and returned email due to mailbox full or user unknown situations will not excuse a student from missing announcements or deadlines.

- Dropping a Class/Withdrawal

  Dropping a Class: Students who wish to drop a course(s) may do so through Bulldog Connection self service during open enrollment and during the drop period only. If students drop a course during the drop period, this means that all entries for the course are dropped completely from their transcript. It is students’ responsibility to view their schedule on Bulldog Connection and make sure their schedule is correct.

  The last day on which courses may be dropped is published in the Academic Calendar for each semester/term.

  All courses in which students are enrolled after the final drop date will be entered permanently on their academic record.

  Withdrawal from Class

  Students wishing to receive a course refund are responsible for officially withdrawing. Withdrawal procedures begin in the Office of the Registrar. The date the withdrawal is received determines the amount of refund. Students withdrawing from the University after completing registration are not entitled to the refund of any fees. Refunds for all courses offered whether 16-week, 8-week, weekend or workshop format shall be awarded based upon a schedule established by the Office of Student Accounts for each semester.

- Incomplete “I” Grade

  Graduate Students
  An “Incomplete” is used only in exceptional circumstances. Students who receive a grade of Incomplete (I) have one academic year from the date of the end of the semester in which the course was taken to have the grade changed. If a grade of incomplete (I) is not changed after one year, it converts to an “F”.

  Student Grade Appeal Procedures
  Students who have documentation that an error was made in the determination of a course grade or desire to appeal a grade due to alleged arbitrary and capricious grading must first discuss the concern with the faculty member involved. If there are unresolved issues, the student may initiate the grade appeal process. The student must direct the appeal in writing, with documentation, through the appropriate channels: Instructor, Department Chair, School Dean, and Provost. If a course assignment grade is in dispute, the student must initiate the appeal no later than ten (10) working days after receiving the grade. If a final grade is in dispute, the student must submit an appeal no later than thirty (30) days from the end of the semester during which the grade was received. Procedures are detailed below.

  1. The student must initially consult with the instructor for a satisfactory resolution of the appeal. If the instructor is no longer with the University or if the student is unable to resolve the issue with the instructor, the student must present the complaint in writing to the Department Chair.

  2. The Department Chair will convene a Departmental Appeals Committee for resolution. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the Departmental Appeals Committee, the Chair renders a decision.

  3. If the complaint cannot be resolved at the Departmental level, the student must present the complaint in writing to the College Dean within fifteen (15) days after receiving notification of the Department’s decision.

  4. The College Dean will render a final resolution.

- Special Needs/Disabilities

  It is the policy of Bowie State University to ensure that all University facilities, services, and accommodations are accessible to individuals with disabilities in accordance to the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Reasonable accommodations will be provided for those students who properly register with the Office of Special Populations.

  The Office of Special Populations provides students with disabilities several support services, including advisement, counseling, and special assistance in school-related matters. Together in consultation with the student and other interested persons, if necessary, the Office recommends accommodations for courses; extended testing hours, note takers, scribes, readers, taped texts, and sign language interpreters. This Office also manages the ADA Resource Center that houses adaptive equipment for the needs of disabled students.

  If you have a verified disability both physical and/or learning, accommodations will be made for you. It is your responsibility to advise the instructor of this need. A disability, however, does not exempt you from completing all requirements of the course. Students who have a disability and who would like accommodations should report immediately to Disability Support Services (DSS), located in Room 1328 in the Business and Graduate Studies Building or call Mr. Michael S. Hughes, DSS Coordinator at 301-860-4067.

- Technology

  Cell phones, pagers, beepers or any other "attention-grabbing" devices are to be turned off or placed on vibrate before class begins. It is distracting and discourteous to both the instructor and your colleagues. If you are expecting an important call or page during class, please plan to handle the situation in a manner that is not disruptive to the classroom process.

- Class Cancellation

  When severe weather creates hazardous road conditions in the area or response to other emergencies, classes may be canceled or postponed. Notice of cancellation will broadcast on the following radio and television stations: 680 AM
BEES
All students are to sign up for BEES (Bowie State University Electronic Emergency System). BEES registration is located on the homepage of the Bowie Website.
