

This verification process utilizes information on your family size. In previous years you would have reported this on Free Application For Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Since the FAFSA has been changed starting in the 2024-2025 academic year the Family size reporting has not been required. However, the Maryland Higher Education College Award (MHEC) still requires family size information to determine eligibility.

Family Size Information

Below is your parent's marital status and number of family members from the FAFSA. Please verify the contact information by listing ALL the members in your parent's household in the table below. Include:

- Yourself
- Your parents, even if you are not living with them
 - Exclude a parent who has died or is not living in the household because of separation or divorce
 - Include a parent who is on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces apart from the family.
- Your siblings if all the following are true:
 - They live with your parents (or live apart because of college enrollment)
 - They receive more than half of their support from your parents
 - They will continue to receive more than half their support from the student's parents between July 1, 2024 and June 30, 2025.
- Other persons if all the following are true:
 - They live with your parents
 - They receive more than half of the support from your parents
 - They will continue to receive more than half their support from the students parents between July 1, 2024 and June 30, 2025.

Please note: The provided criteria for dependent children or other persons align with the requirement that family size align with whom your parent could claim as a dependent on a U.S. tax return if your parent were to file a U.S. tax return at the time of completing the 2024-2025 FAFSA. As a result, your parents should not include any unborn children in the family size.
